

The Football League's national Junior Reporter Competition

Do you see yourself as a budding sports journalist?

Newcastle United Foundation, in conjunction with the Football League, would like to invite young people under the age of 14 to enter a competition to write a report of a Newcastle United match. The winner will then compete with those from other clubs to be crowned national winner and win a trip to Wembley for a play-off final!

How to enter:

All you have to do is submit a written account of a game you have seen at St. James' Park. There is no word limit and those who enter are encouraged to be as creative as possible.

Group entries can be posted to:

Junior Reporter Competition
Newcastle United Foundation
St. James' Park
Newcastle upon Tyne
NE1 4ST

Alternatively, entries can be e-mailed to foundation@nufc.co.uk with the subject as 'Match Report'. All entries are to be received by 26 March 2010.

The winners will be notified the week commencing 5 April 2010. Please include the name, address, age and school of the entrants in all submissions.

THE PRIZE

The Magpies winner will receive:

- a signed shirt
- four tickets for an upcoming home game at St. James' Park

PLUS the chance to win:

- a VIP media day out at Wembley
- official certificate
- name listed on Football League website
- goody bag from the Football League

Full terms and conditions available on request.

